DIRECTIVE

Indian Reservations and Rancherias shall be signed in a like manner as cities and unincorporated communities for supplemental destination and miscellaneous guide signs. Only the official name of the federally recognized Indian Tribe, Reservation, or Rancheria shall be used on signs. Signs shall be white (retroreflective) legend and border on green (retroreflective) background.

Signs and sign messages shall conform to the requirements of the California Outdoor Advertising Act, which prohibits advertising displays within the right-of-way of any state highway.

IMPLEMENTATION

Effective immediately, Districts are, upon request, encouraged to work cooperatively with Indian Tribes regarding appropriate signs on state highways. Attached for your information is a listing of federally recognized Reservations and Rancherias in California.

BACKGROUND

The California Department of Transportation has a Native American Advisory Committee which works with the Department on transportation issues. In August 1999, the Committee made a request that the Department consider a policy for signing to federally recognized Indian Reservations and Rancherias. There are about 100 federally recognized Indian Reservations and Rancherias in California. The request was for a policy which would allow reservation boundary signs (similar to city limit signs) and destination signs like cities and unincorporated communities. This Directive was developed in response to that request.

This Directive supersedes the memorandum dated December 26, 1996, by William A. J. Hoversten, Chief, Office of Signs and Delineation, entitled "Requests for Signing to Indian Rancherias." Generally, the memorandum explained past practices for signing to Indian establishments and made a clarification regarding signs for gaming facilities on Indian land.

By signature, on October 21, 1999, Mr. Lawrence Orcutt (for Mr. Michael Miles, Acting Program Manager Maintenance) concurs with this new policy directive for signing to Indian Reservations, including funding and placement of signs by Maintenance.
